ULLING TOGETHE

A call for cooperation and responsibility

By Charles N. White Jr.

executive director

The fratermity world was faced with a new challenge this year. Its ability to respond will likely determine the future existence of fraternities on some campuses

Entire Greek systems have been lumped together for judgment. No matter how good a job one fraternity does on a given campus, it will be characterized by the system of fraternities on that campus or more likely, characterized by the worst fraternity on campus

A resurgence in fraternity populanty on college campuses has created a general atmosphere of prospenty in the "fratermits business." The results are evident in record numbers of new members and larger chapters

A side effect, however, has been a heightened public awareness of traternities in the news. Attention has been focusing on the activities and the problems of fraternities.

This year, we have seen otherwise thoughtful people lose sight of the special contribution fraternities make to young men contributions at a critical time when young men are searching for recognition and a chance to grow with the emotional commitment of close friends

The new intellect calls for disbanding fraternities, claiming they are bastions of "anti-intellectualism" and "rude social examples

Said the March 2, 1984 Christian Science Monitor, "Fraterrities constitute a center of resistance to needed change on college campuses, and their existence can make it difficult for administrators to affect that change.

A strange statement, almost fascist in its intent to suppress those who the Monitor perceives to oppose change

National fraternities are warned. The future of our organizations will not be easy.

Perhaps that message is not necessarily new or surprising, but sweeping judgments impacting entire Greek systems is a new concern. The future of our best and strongest chapters can no longer be taken for granted.

The evidence suggests adminstrators might be more willing to eliminate the entire fraternity system on a given campus rather than deal with specific or isolated problems and situations. There is a growing intolerance for unacceptable behavior, coupled with a presumption that fraternities are breeding grounds for that behavior

The age of one fraternity's complete independence and autonomy from another must fade quickly Historically, national fraternities have refused to publicly hold out expectations for the behavior of another fraternity or chapter. Fraternities have expressed no concern for how another fraternity

If all fraternities are to be lumped together, it is clear that the traditional autonomy and independence cannot continue we will be held responsible for the actions and behavior of the

Another equally important challenge then surfaces: To protect the unique learning and social development environment that exists in the college fraternity.

One reason mature people find it more difficult to learn may be that they are less willing to take risks. The college fratemity is made of young people-young people willing to take risks

While that may pose certain occasional threats, therein lies the excitement of fratemity work. The leadership tumover is annual and the membership turnover is constant. The problems chapters face are most often familiar, repeating problems. It is the process of learning

The frustrations are really great opportunities to enjoy life from the ever renewing vantage point of undisciplined energy

In this continuing process, young men learn the limits of acceptable behavior. Those limits are likely to become more clearly defined as pressure on fraternities increases. As that happens, the freedom to take risks will be lessened.

We can add to knowledge of procedures, knowledge of manners and proper style, but we must be careful not to stamp out youthful creativity and learning in the process.

John W. Gardner wrote in "Self Renewal." "Life isn't a train ride where you choose your destination, pay your fare, and settle back for a nap. It's a cycle nde over uncertain terrain, with you in the driver's seat, constantly correcting your balance and determining the direction of progress

Dealing with the challenges for fraternities may not be easy. but we must work together to enjoy the scenery along the way of the cycle ride

A look at our own backyard

Sig Ep concentrates efforts to improve chapters

executive director

Sigma Phi Epsilon continues to be a strong leader among fraternities. Seventy-eight percent of our chapters are considered to be ranked in the competitive upper half on their campuses, and this year we exceeded the record number of men pledged and initiated the previous year by about 3 percent.

Of concern, however, are 16 chapters which have had a membership less than 30 men since January, 1983. Members of these chapters have been working with Sig Ep staff and alumni the last year-and-a-half to develop rush programs and increase their chapter size.

Those chapters now have until March, 1985, to build their manpower to the 30-man level. The resources of the Fratemity are available and committed to help them

Five closed

This year the West Texas State (Texas Xi) chapter and the Stephen F. Austin (Texas Pi) chapter surrendered their charters due to non competitive operating situations. The charters at Lewis University (Ill. Iota), Lenoir Rhyne College (N.C. Theta) and

Lincoln Memorial University (Tenn. Inta) were withdrawn by the National Board of Directors. The board said those campuses lacked the strength and our chapters on them lacked the competitiveness to warrant our continued efforts there

It is difficult to withdraw an undergraduate chapter charter, but that action is necessary when the resources of the Fratemity have to be diverted to a market which is no longer competitive, and with little opportunity for improvement.

In the last several Journal issues, the chapter conditions column has reported on problems. We will continue that column in the Journal With this issue, we update you on the progress of some of those we have reported on

The Dartmouth housing situation has improved with the college's minimum standards met and a long-term maintenance and improvement program established. The chapter is doing very well and is the innovative leader on campus.

The Southwest Missouri State chapter is losing its house to urban renewal, but with it's and more adequate housing near campus. The chanter's charter is still under the control of an alumniadvisory council and will be until the move is complete and the chapter is meeting expectations

The University of Virginia fratemity system continues under the careful scrutiny of the community and the university. Most fraternity chapters have started long overdue improvements. Sig Ep is progressing very slowly in this regard.

The Southern Mississipi chapter has progressed very well with 23 pledges and 16 initiates this year. The alumni advisory council there has been dishanded.

The East Texas State University chapter alumni advisory council has been disbanded, but general operations still do not meet Sigma Phi Epsilon expectations.

The William and Mary chapter will have its college-imposed probation reviewed at the end of this academic year.

The Massachusetts chapter continues to grow and re-establish itself on campus, but there is still no housing-which is critical to

The Lehigh chapter is showing continued improvement and progress.

Thiel College has not shown improvement, and a decision to remain on that campus or not will be made based on fall, 1984 rush

The Vermont chapter continues to be of concern, particularly with long-term issues. A maintenance and house improvement program needs to be instituted and the undergraduate chapter needs to clarify its operating expectations

Chapters which are of particular concern for the coming fall due to low manpower and weak operations are: Drury College (Mo. Delta), Culver-Stockton College (Mo. Epsilon), Marquette University (Wisc. Zeta), Georgia Southern (Ga. Epsilon), Randolph Macon College (Va. Zeta), Texas Wesleyan University (Texas Nu), University of Alabama at Birmingham (Ala. Delta), Philadelphia College of Textiles and Sciences (Pa. Omicron), Southern Illinois University at Carbondale (III. Kappa), Baldwin-Wallace College (Ohio Zeta) and Chico State (Calif. fota).

The values and high ideals

Ohio State chapter re-initiates 1911 grad for Renaissance

editor

COLUMBUS, Ohio-When Mark Bloom, Ohio State '84, heard about the Renaissance of Brotherhood program, the choice of who his chapter should honoranly initiate was obvious to him

His chapter had recently rekindled the interest of an alumnus, the oldest known living alumnus of Sigma Phi Epsilon Ulmore R. Berk, Ohio State '11. It had been at least 70 years since Berk had seen the ritual ceremony performed, said Bloom

Berk was thrilled

"It brought back quite a few things I'd forgotten," said the spry 95-year-old Berk "Many memories came back, one peculiar thing I remembered was the gnp "

"He was overjoyed," said chapter President Robert Brindza, Oliio State '86" It was unbeheyeable, it was a once-in-a-lifetime experience for all of us."

Brindza had been concerned that some of the brothers might not attend the ceremony,

he said

"It was a tremendous experience for everyone."

Brindza and the Ohio State chapter took the opportunity of the Renaissance of Brotherhood to honor Brother Berk's special involvement in the Fratemity Berk last year responded to an invitation to a chapter alumni work

Congressman Steve Bartlett wearing the golden heart of Sigma Phi Epsilon

He helped paint a ceiling that day, and he's been coming back ever since, Brindza said

"We wanted to honor Elmore," said Bloom, "that was the goal we set out to accomplish and we did it very well "

The Renaissance program was designed by the new national Committee on Ritual Education as an effort to encourage Sigma Phi Epsilon brothers to reflect on the values and high ideals of the Fra ternity. At the same time, it allowed an opportunity to honor special people and tell the public about the Ritual, values and high ideals.

Chapters responded by initiating fathers who have made special contributions to their son's Fraternity, or faculty members who have lent assistance. Others initiated other prominent people in their communities.

The national Fratemity initiated Texas Congressman Steve Bartlett in special ceremonies in his home town of Dallas. Almost 140 Sig Ep alumni, wives and undergraduates attended a formal banquet to celebrate the event, with a keynote address by Bartlett.

Individual chapters planned their participation to coincide with parents weekends, or other special events already on the calendar. Celebrations ranged from formal banquets, to casual open houses, receptions and pienies.

The Cortland State chapter (N.Y. Mu) honorarily initiated the president of the university, Dr. James Clark, and the men's soccer and track coach, Dr. Fred Taube.

The Pennsylvania State chapter (Pa. Eta) initiated Sheriff Garry G. Kunes, a move which warranted newspaper coverage in State College, Pa. A celebration following the ceremony was attended by the Sheriff's family, Sig Ep alumni, undergraduates and the mayor, police chief, and county commissioners.

Each chapter was asked to choose someone in the community who represented the values of the Fraternity and initiate him as an honorary initiate. The process for honorary initiations is the same as for undergraduate student initiations.

The Committee on Ritual Education will soon begin planning the program for 1985. The program is intended to become an annual celebration of the Ritual.

New Merrill Lynch chief

Schreyer takes the helm

Pledges to study alcohol

NEW YORK-William A Schrever, Pennsylvania State '48, will become chief executive officer of Merrill Lynch and Company on July L, when Roger E. Birk will retire from that post. Schreyer is currently president of the giant securities firm, and is also chairman of the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation Board of Trustees.

The Wall Street Journal recently said industry officials expect Schreyer - described as a "hands-on, aggressive manager," can transform Metrill Lynch into a market-driven financial-services concern." Birk will retire from his post as chairman in 1985, at which time Schreyer is expected to assume that position as well

In his position with the Sig Ep Educational Foundation, Schreyer has taken an aggressive leadership role in generating financial support for Sig Ep undergraduates

Gold Medal Greek

Reagan receives NIC award

WASHINGTON-At a March 23 White House luncheon, President Ronald Reagan of Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity was presented the National Interfraternity Conference Gold Medal, the highest award of the federation's 57 men's general college fraternities

Reagan was also honored at the luncheon with the highest honor of his fraternity, the Order of the Golden Eagle of Tau Kappa Epsilon. According to the NIC, from his days as president of his TKE chapter at Eureka College, Reagan has been a loyal member of his fraternity and a life-long supporter of the fratemity movement,

He was chosen as an NIC Gold Medal recipient at the NIC 1983 annual meeting.

Previous winners of the NIC Gold Medal have been from various fields. The last recipient before Reagan was Dr. Norman Vincent Peale of Phi Gamma Delta

Although 16 U.S. presidents have been fratemity members, Reagan is the first to receive the award.

Those presidents who were fraternity members were: Gerald Ford (Delta Kappa Epsilon), John F. Kennedy (Phi Kappa Theta), Dwight Eisenhower (Tau Epsilon Phi), Harry S. Truman (Lambda Chi Alpha), Franklin D. Roosevelt (Alpha Delta Phi), Calvin Coolidge (Phi Gamma Delta). Woodrow Wilson (Phi Kappa Psi), Howard Taft (Psi Upsilon), Theodore Roosevelt (Alpha Delta Phi and Delta Kappa Epsilon), William McKinley (Sigma Alpha Epsilon), Benjamin Harrison (Phi Delta Theta), Grover Cleveland (Sigma Chi), James Garfield (Delta Upsilon), Rutherford Hayes (Delta Kappa Epsilon) and James Polk (Kappa Alpha).

Said NIC Vice President Rodney Williams Jr. in presenting Reagan's award: "We take great pride knowing that membership in a fraternity can offer students the leadership development opportunities necessary for them to become businessmen, scientists, doctors, lawyers, clergymen, educators, athletes, entertainers and yes, even president of the Unt-

Gammar next fall will be required to attend an alcohol-education seminar conducted by the campus health service.

War on drinking

The requirement was adopted by the Greek System Senate as part of a universitywide effort to combat alcohol abuse. At least 80 percent of the pledge class of each of the 12

Year's largest

Western Carolina chapter chartered

By Mark G. Harrison Western Carolina '85

CULLOWHEE, N.C.-A 73-man chapter at Western Carolina University became the largest chapter installation of the year when 57 of the men were initiated Nov. 5. The other members were awaiting grades to meet a university-imposed requirement.

The chapter was started with 14 men in February, 1983, by then Regional Director Victor H. Benoit III (Clarion '83). The chapter has expenened rapid growth, and still maintains à 2.64 GPA

Initiating teams from the University of North Carolina-Charlotte (N.C. Nu), the University of Tennessee (Tenn. Alpha) and East Tennessee State (Tenn. Gamma) were on hand Saturday for the full day of initiations Jack Wheeler (North Texas State '61) served as installing officer at a banquet attended by Assistant Vice Chancellor for Student Development W. Douglas Davis.

Western Carolina is a state supported institution offening undergraduate instruction in the arts and sciences, husiness, education and health fields. The 400-acre campus is located in a rural area 52 miles west of Ashville, N.C., in the Appalachian Mountains.

There are 12 national fraternities on campus, including Pi Kappa Alpha, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Lambda Chi Alpha, Pi Kappa Phi, Delta Sigma Phi and Kappa Alpha Order.

The new Sig Ep chapter recently won the Outstanding Chapter Award presented by the university administration.

Texas Delta is back

Chapter rechartered at Houston

HOUSTON-After a 13-year absence from campus, Sigma Phi Epsilon returned to the University of Houston with the reinstallation of the Texas Delta chapter there on April 28. The chapter was first chartered in 1956, but the charter was revoked in 1971 due to declining manpower and overall chapter Transfer Sig Ep students from Texas A & M (Texas Mu), the University of Texas at Austin (Texas Alpha), Sam Houston State (Texas Eta), California State Polytechnic at Pamona (Cal. Mu) and Loras College (Iowa Eta) led the reorganization effort last spring.

Initiation teams were provided by the Southwest Texas State (Texas Tau) chapter and the new chapter at Loyola-New Orleans (Louisiana Gamma). Highlights included the Butler, professor of law for the Hilton College of Hotel and Restaurant Management.

Jack Wheeler (North Texas State '61), pas grand presdient and Order of the Golder Heart, served as installing officer, presenting the chapter flag and original charter to chapte President John R. Irish, '84, The University of Houston is a four-year state supported institution with almost 17 50s students. Degrees are offered in several areas but the school is most known for its school c hotel and restaurant management. There ar 12 national fratemities on campus, includin Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Chi, Tau Kapp Epsilon, Lambda Chi Alpha, Pi Kappa Alph and Beta Theta Pi.

SELINSGROVE, Pa.—Pennsylvania's 21st Sigma Phi Epsilon chapter, and the Fraternity's first phi chapter was installed May 5 at Susquehanna University with 35 men.

The chapter was started in September of 1982 by then Chapter Development Director Charles A Stegman who pledged 10 men. The chapter's objective was to improve the campus concept of fratemitics with Sigma Phi Susquehanna is a small private college in rural central Pennsylvania. There are seven fraternities and sororities on campus, and 32 percent of the 1,400 students are members.

First national fraternity

53 at Loyola launch chapter

By James Gordon Lovola '84

NEW ORLEANS-Sigma Phi Epsilon became the first national fratemity on the Loyola campus when the Louisiana Gamma chapter was installed with 53 initiates November 19, 1983

There are four local fraternities on campus, but problems with several of those groups prompted a search for a strong national fraternity to boost the Greek system. The then adviser to fraternines, Manuel R. "Manny" Cunard (Rhode Island '70) was instrumental in organizing a Sigma Phi Epsilon group.

The chapter grew quickly to be nearly the largest on campus by offening an alternative to the practices to the local groups. Alumni support for the group has been coordinated by Randy Pressgrove (Lambuth '77). Pressgrove is a past regional director for the Fraternity.

Initiation teams for the weekend were provided by the chapters at Lamar (Texas Epsilon), Southern Mississippi (Miss. Gamma) and Aubum (Ala Epsilon). National Director John H. Stanley was installing officer, delivering the ritual interpretation after initiations and the keynote address at the installation banquet.

The banquet was attended by Loyola President, the Rev. James Carter S.J.

After the thrill

New chapters set mission and goals

By Kelly L. Mankin

expansion director

A Sigma Epsilon Chapter receives its charter-becoming a Sigma Phi Epsilon Chapter The chapter has achieved its single most significant goal, and possibly the only goal it's ever had.

After the celebration fades, what then is left to work for?

Often nght after chartening, a chapter will temporarily lose direction and falter. For some, the setback is significant.

Sigma Phi Epsilon has instituted a postinstallation mission determination and goal setting retreat program to offset the problem. The program involves a process for all who are involved with the chapter, including undergraduates, alumni, school administrators and parents

Through the process, the chapter determines exactly what it is to accomplish as a fraternity and set it out specifically in a mission statement. From that follows a new list of goals, coupled with action plans to provide each person a clear definition of their role.

The whole process is to be repeated annually by the chapter. The mission statement can be amended as necessary to meet the needs of the changing membership and new goals are to be established each time. By using the program as a continuous process, there is a constant renewal of direction and plans for improvement.

After installation of the Western Carolina chapter, North Carolina Pi, the chapter determined, in part, that its mission was to "establish new and higher standards for the fraterity system, campus and surrounding community."

The chapter further assigned qualities it hopes to attain with each of the Fraternity's cardinal principles:

· Unity with brotherly love

public endeavors

· Excellence in chapter pursuits by being diligent · To display virtue in all of its social and

The chapter was founded in the spring of 1983 by 16 men who were not satisfied with the selection of fraternities on campus and the programs they offered. The men met with the regional director, Victor J. Tohak Jr. from Sig Ep Headquarters who helped them start the

The chapter boasts members who fill key leadership positions on campus, including three editors from the student newspaper staff, the president of the university's largest residence hall, two members of the crew team, a varsity baseball player and several honor

The Fratemity's grand treasurer, Wallace C. Doud (Wisconsin '48) served as installing officer at the installation banquet. Associate Dean of Students William Kidder also attended the event. Chapters at M.I.T. (Mass. Delta) and Bentley College (Mass. Epsilon) provided initiation teams. Trueman L. "Sandy" Sanderson (Worcester '31) followed up the initiations with the ritual interpretation

The University of New Hampshire is a land-grant college established in 1886. With Sig Ep, there are 11 national fraternities on campus, including Tau Kappa Epsilon, Pi Kappa Alpha, Lambda Chi Alpha, Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Sigma Nu. Enrollment is about 10,500.

Division 1-A seniors:

Joel Blunk, fullback, Duke-Blunk was ised primarily as a blocking back and carned he ball in short yardage situations. A highight last season was a 36-yard touch down bass reception against national power North arolina. He is currently playing for the Jampa 3ay Bandits of the USFI

Ron Craine, wide receiver, Wake Forest -Crume was a walk-on who earned a all scholarship his senior year at Wake. He aw extensive action, highlighted by an 18and touchdown pass reception against Clemon. Crume also received the Most Inspiramal Player Award

Dan Dougherty, fullback, Wake orest-Dan is a four-year starter for the Deacons, and this year rushed for 107 yards i 35 attempts for a 3-Laverage. The 6'3", 219ound senior also caught 16 passes for 108 rids and a 6-8 average and two touchdowns le recently signed as a free agent with the sew York Giants

Jeff Harelson, defensive back, Dukefarelson has been a defensive starter for three ears and was this year's defensive captain. He s known for being a hard hitter - he caused

Brick Johnstone, defensive back, Duke-Johnstone had an outstanding year, highlighted by two interceptions in his last game against North Carolina. He led all defensive backs in solo tackles, and was selected to the All-Atlantic Coast Conference Academic Jeani

Todd Landis, linebacker, Wake Forest—The 6'3", 225-pound senior was a three-year starter at Wake Forest. He had 34 tackles before he was injured last year during game with North Carolina State A highlight this past season for Landis was being selected defensive player of the game against Western Carolina

Bill Obremskey, defensive back. Duke—Obremskey has been noted as an outstanding student athlete. He was one of 11 NCAA football players to be named as a National Football Foundation and Hall of Lame Scholar Athlete. He received a grant to pursue graduate study. He served as defensive captain and led the defensive backs in overall

Tom Hendrickson, safety, Indiana-The 6'1", 200-pound junior started in all 11 games for the Hoosiers in 1983. Hendrickson was third on the team in tackles with 86, five times led the team in game tackles, and had three interceptions James Kilpatrie, center, Washington-The 6'4", 266-pound junior is a two-year letter winner for the buskys. He is a walk-on who has earned a full scholarship. Brother Kilpatrick has seen action in one Rose Bowl and two Aloha Bowl games. He was the long snapper for Chuck Nelson when he set the NCAA record for 23 consecutive field goals.

Scott Strausburger, defensive end. Nebraska-Strausburger was a starter on perhaps one of the best college football teams of all time. He had 42 tackles, two fumble recoveries, and one pass interception. In addition to being a walk-on starter, Strausburger is an outstanding student and served as the Nebraska Alpha rush chairman.

John Tolish, punter, Duke-Tolish finished fifth in the NCAA with a 42.8-yard average. He also played receiver and caught one pass for 47 yards against Wake Forest. In a game against Clemson, he had an injured ankle, but managed to pull off a fake punt and run 22 yards for a first down.

Sophumores:

Greg Flanagan, wide receiver, Duke A starter with a fine record at Duke-he caught 15 passes for 236 yards. Flanagan is another of the Sig Eps who played well against North Carolina, having caught a 19vard pass to set of Brother Joel Bunk's touchdown.

Clay Griffith, tackle, Washington-A 6'4", 264-pound sophomore who has seen limited action with the Huskys, but looks to he in the running for a starting position this fall. Gnffith has good speed and strength.

Dave Lindquist, guard, Duke-Lindquist saw most of his action on special teams and as a reserve offensive lineman. He has xcellent speed and has a promising future at Duke He also serves his chapter as controller.

Mark Moseley, defensive back, Duke-Another starter in the defensive backfield for Duke who had a good season. Moseley led the team in tackles against Virginia and has a bright future ahead at Duke also.

Freshmen:

Kevin Gogan, tackle, Washington-An excellent high school athlete who hit more than .500 on his baseball team, this 6'6". 288-pound freshman earned a starting position in spring practice and looks to be a starter this fall. He saw extensive action on the junior varsity squad last season.

David Kinniry, linebacker, Indiana— Kinniry started his first three games for the Hoosiers before being sidelined with a hand injury. He returned again, however, to see playing time in all the remaining games of the season. Kinniry is a freshman who is sure to return next year to bolster the defense.

Other divisions:

Sig Ep also had football players in 1983 that competed in some of the smaller NCAA and National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics divisions

Brother Burt Mueling at Kearney State College was named to the NAIA Division I All-American football team. The 6'4", 210pound junior caught 41 passes for 784 yards and 8 touchdowns Junior Eric Fairbanks at Clarion Univer-

Relative importance

egacies present valuable rush asset to chapters

Relatives of Sig Eps, and friends of alumni in particular, can be a tremendous resource for rush. Welcoming the relative of a Sig Ep alumnus, paying special attention to him during rush and giving him every opportunity to become a member can help the chapter's rush program

Legacies, as they are called, provide a bonus situation for rush -one evers chapter should make the most of

Not only do legacies offer Sigma Phi Epsilon new members, but they also provide a chance to spark the interest in the alumnus who created the tie to the Fratemity

The following, in alphabetical order by state and then school, is a listing of those legacies who have pledged Sig Ep since the last Journal.

Strausburger: academic all-American

Former rush chairman is Nebraska football star

By Bruce T, Rodysill

Nebraska '83

HNCOLN, Neb.—With the clock running out on the 1982 Nebraska-Oklahoma football game and the Sooners driving the ball, a Nebraska defensive end reads a screen pass from his position. He intercepts and returns the ball to the Oklahoma L yard line. A Nebraska victors is preserved, giving the Cornhuskers the Big Light championship and a trin to the Orange Bowl.

The Nebraska player who saved that game, and the championship, spent last summer traveling the plains of Nebraska as summer rush chairman for his fraternity. Pledging 34 men, Scott Strausburger proved himself as successful in rush as in football.

Being selected by his 120 fraternity brothers as summer rush chairman and that gamesaving interception against Oklahoma, Strausburger says, are the two biggest highlights of his college career so far Strausburger, a 6' 17', 212-pound, juntor defensive end at Nebraska has achieved impressive statistics and honors. In the 1983 season, he was Honorable Mention All-Big Eight, Academic All-Big Eight and Academic All-American He was also named to the Los Angeles Times All-American Walk-On Team He had 42 tackles on the Comhusker team, including nine for losses, two lumble recoveries, another pass interception and three passes blocked in 1983.

Scott Strausburger (Nebraska '85) zeros in on the Missouri quarterback.

This summer he is interning with Dr. Gerald Wolf at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. Wolf is one of the nation's premier doctors in the field of sports medicine.

Strausburger spoke of his expenences as summer rush chairman, stressing organization, planning, total involvement and enthusiasm to be successful.

He used a statewide system, dividing responsibilities among his chapter brothers and holding a multitude of small parties throughout the state. The smaller parties, he said, made rushees better able to visit with brothers, see a chapter scrapbook, various pamphlets and a fact booklet about the chapter.

From the rushees who attended the smaller parties, some were invited to one of four large rush functions which the entire chapter was encouraged to attend. Strausburger said visiting with rushees' parents was important. With parents, he would stress the chapter's emphasis on academics and campus involvement, and the chances for leadership development in the chapter.

Strausburger's plans call for further involvement in his chapter, another year of Comhusker football, and then on to medical school

Donation is states biggest

NORMAN, Okla.—The University of Oklahoma chapter (Okla. Beta) has launched into a second decade of a fund raising tradition, contributing more than $20,000 this year to the Muscular Dystrophy Foundation.
"The money raised in the fall from our

"The money raised in the fall from our dance marathon totaled more than $20,000 that we gave to the foundation," said chapter President Erik Modine. "We are said to be the largest contributor in the state of Oklahoma."

The Oklahoma chapter every year holds a boxing match in the fall term and a dance marathon in the spring term to raise money for the charity.

The school year starts in the fall with members preparing for the "Snorter Luster Boxing Tournament" held in October or November.

The match is held in a local discotheque to attract more people. A local beer distributor provides advertising for the event. This year, the distributor provided 50 large banners to be placed around campus and more than 2,000 fliers.

"This year the boxing match raised around $17,000 alone. After the expenses, we were able to give a check to MD for $12,500," Modine said.

Even before the day of the boxing tournament, planning has begun on the next fund raiser—the dance marathon beld early in the spring term. The spring Sig Ep dance marathon at Oklahoma has also established a nch tradition.

"By October we are in the planning stages, and by Christmas break things are basically mapped out for the February dance marathon," Modine said.

"This year we were paired up with the Pi Beta Phi sorority. We had more than forty couples dancing in four to five hour shifts at all times. We started the dance on Friday and ended on Sunday, raising more than $8,500 to be donated."

Modine said money is raised from contributions from companies and families as well as from pledges for the number of hours danced by dance participants.

Several years ago, members of the chapter appeared on the Jerry Lews Labor Day Muscular Dystrophy Telethon to present the chapter's contribution in person.

grand president

Have you ever considered if the people in a company or organization have any idea how their individual participation contributes to the results of the group's efforts? Does the group even have a clear conception of the desired results"

Without a clear definition of the overall mission of an organization and the careful planning of actions to fulfill the mission, the organization is probably adrift and fortunate to achieve any degree of success. It moves forward purely by chance if at all

It each segment of an organization has considered its contribution, or mission for the organization, and has devised steps or action plans to achieve the common goals, the organization is aligned and working in a unified direction. The organization will more than likely be successful in its efforts.

Late last fall, Sigma Phi Epsilon began a process toward aligning the Fratemity and its various support groups. A group of 35 volunteer alumni and Headquarters staff met in Tarrytown, NY, to begin determining the mission of the Fraternity and the boards and committees which lead it.

Alumni surveyed

Mission statements were prepared for the Fratemity, the National Board of Directors. the Headquarters staff, the Educational Foundation, National Housing Corporation, district governors and alumni. In February, all Fratemity volunteers (chapter counselors, alumni board officials, national officials, etc.), employees, and 1,000 alumni selected randomly were surveyed for responses to the

Responses to the survey indicate strong endorsement of the mission statements for the Fraternity, National Board of Directors and Headquarters staff. The alumni mission statement drew general agreement, with alumni viewed as contributing primarily through alumni board work, financial support, chapter counselor positions and career

The survey results indicated a lack of clarity or disagreement from many respondents to indicate that the mission statements for the Educational Foundation, National Housing Corporation, and district governors need clarification.

Each segment is now considering whether its mission statement reflects the actual contribution of the group to the Fratemity, and revising it accordingly. The next step in the process is to develop action plans.

Value to chapters

The most important part of the aligment process is its value to the undergraduate chapters. Regional directors this year will be trained in the alignment process, and it will play a key role in the next Regional Leadership Academy program in February, 1985.

Additionally, two regional directors for the next school year will be trained specialists with the skills to work with chapters to implement the process and monitor its progress All regional directors will have the knowledge to help chapters begin the process.

The objective is to develop a flexible sys-tem or framework which fosters continuous innovation and renewal to meet everchanging needs in our environment. I hope you each find this to be a valuable process, and if you have any observations, I hope you will share them with me

J. Edward Zollinger Award

Outstanding senior leaders named; sophomores recognized

The J. Edward Zollinger Outstanding Senior Award is given each year at the Regional Leadership Academies to an outstanding senior in each of the Fraternity's districts. This award is to recognize achievements of our undergraduate senior members who have been proven leaders on their campuses and in their chapters

The award consists of a certificate signed by the Grand President and the District Governor In addition, it carries with it the J. Edward Zollinger Leadership Award. This consists of a $100 cash award presented to the sophomore brother selected by the outstanding semor's chapter. The Zollinger Leadership Award is representative of the reason fraternities have endured for more than 200 years—their life being passed on to younger men.

Sigma Phi Epsilon established the Zollinger Awards to commemorate the leadership and inspiration J. Edward Zollinger gave the Fratemity. Brother Zollinger served on the National Board of Directors from 1963-1971, was grand president for two terms, from 1967-1971, and also served as the chairman of the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation from 1971 until his death in November, 1976.

New records set

Support of general programs up

The efforts of 5,134 Sig Ep brothers and friends helped set a record in the number of contributors to the Educational Foundation in one year. In addition, a record 1,171 individuals made their first gift to the Foundation during 1983.

Sig Ep's 5,134 new and continuing supporters of the Foundation provided $340,519. The most dramatic and vital increase came in unrestricted and designated giving in support of general programs. Those general Foundation programs provide funding for the Regional Leadership Academies, student loans, National Competition Scholarships, resident counselor study grants, and many other programs available to all Sig Eps on a nationwide basis.

As a Sig Ep brother and Chairman of the Board of Trustees, it is a privilege for se to present the 1985 Annual Report of the Signa Ph Egaslon Educational Youndation, one of the levioutside interests I have chosen to support.

Regionals

Foundation funds academies

In 1983 the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation provided a $43,200 grant for the Regional Leadership Academy program. The funding allowed the Fraternity to upgrade the program and to provide more and better qualified faculty.

Each year a Foundation grant provides for the regional academies. They are held during the month of February at various locations around the country. The weekend academies offer valuable instruction in goal development and management skills-preparing the officer to better meet the challenges he will face as a leader in his chapter and throughout his

The 1984 program was held in seven locations across the country with 1,709 alumni and undergraduates participating. A record 226 chapters, or 90 percent of the 250 chapters and Sigma Epsilon Chapters, were represented.

Through working with the undergraduate leaders on goal-setting techniques, management principles, and strategic planning and resource allocation, the regionals have assumed an integral role in organizing the operation of the Fraternity and providing an educational service for the undergraduates. It is a real credit to the younger brothers and the alumni who work with them that Sigma Phi Epsilon survives, and in fact improves, with new managers every year and an entire new membership every three years.

The Foundation trustees believe the Regional Leadership Academies are part of this success and are committed to a continued and expanding role in these programs.

Dulin Award

Leader of new chapter recognized

The William S. Gordon Dulin Award recognizes the outstanding leadership of a member of a newly chartered chapter. The annual award is a grant to establish a chapter restricted scholarship fund for his chapter

The Foundation Trustees established and endowed the Dulin Award through a bequest Brother Dulin left to the Educational Foundation in his will.

William S. Gordon Dulin was a charter member, and the first initiate, of the D.C. Alpha Chapter at George Washington University. Brother Dulin was a career employee of the Bell Telephone System assigned to the Richmond, Virginia office. While in Richmond, he spent many hours with William L. "Uncle Billy" Phillips and kept up with the great growth and development of the Fraternity during that period.

The Dulin Award recipient for 1984 is Mark G. Harrison, Western Carolina, North Carolina Pt., November 5, 1983.

SEVEN REASONS WHY YOUR WILL IS STILL IMPORTANT GIVING TOWNS VOIL TOWNS VOIL

Who has time to die?

Or even time to think about it? Plenty of time for that later Only that's not always true

You can really harm your family if you die without leaving a will—not just financially, but in other ways as well

Making your will can be quick simple and inexpensive Making a will can be satisfying, and even enjoyable Your will can truly even enjoyable Your will can truly reflect your life by leaving sentimen-tal giffs to loved ones To receive your free copies of the Educational Foundation's series of brochures on wills send a request to

The annual Telethon Tails benefit rused $200 for the United Way of the Upper Valley 1 penning projects include several structural renovations to the house, which will include establishment of a library study room. The college president was on hand for our 75th anniversary celebration.

-1 Christopher McCartie
DAVIS & FLKINS, West Virginia
Delta—We clinched the II-C sports tiles in soccer and football this year. The November Annual Black-and-White was successful. A problem with alumni addresses resulted in several alumni not receiving invitations. The addresses were being updated and revised to correct the problem in the spring.

Matthew Poland DELAWARE, Delaware Alpha Sigma I psilon Chapter—We have reopened this spring with 36 pledges. We had a retreat in April at a West Chester, Pennsylvania, camp to begin workine together and establish our goals. We are working quickly to establish ourselves on campus with community service projects and sorority mixers.

Thomas Boettcher DRAKE, Towa Delta—We took second place in the Homecoming Banner Contest We won Most Improved GPA and Highest Pledge Class GPA for spring, 1983, and received special recognition from university officials. We also took part in the Drake alumni Phon-asthon, in which one brother won the Most-Pledgessins-Night Award.

Bob Emmons Jr.

EAST CAROLINA, North Carolina Kappa—We started the school year with renovations of the party from between the two houses. In the fall term, we initiated time brothers which took membership to 55. Our which teams handed the chapter a second place standing first semester among fraternities.

Spring rush was our first experience with dry rush, at which we boosted our total pledges for the year to 25.

- James Griffin LAST TENNESSEL STATE, Tennessee

FLORIDA, Florida Alpha—A fall intuation of 27 men and a spring mitiation of a record 16 men returned the chapter to the 100-plus
P L U S listing this year. The 27man fall class was the largest since 1976. Huber Hurst, one of three Florida. Alpha recipients of the Order of the Golden Heart, was on hand for our Founders Day banquet. Our keynote speaker was former United States Congressman D.R. "Billy." Matthews. An alumni reunion after the Florida State game turned out several prominent alumni, including Brother Matthews, the Honorable James Alderman, chief justice of the Supreme Court of Florida, and Ralph Furlington, commissioner of education for the state of Florida.

Our community service projects included the Fall Football Frenzy, a week-long football tournament. In the spring semester, we gave $1,000 to the University of Flonda Presidents Council-the second year ours was the only ratemity. We received the Lixelsion Cup for community service at the Tallahassee Regional Leadership Academy and were named overall winners at the District 8 Sports Day held here.

- Rich Stern
FLORIDA STATE, Florida Epsilon—
Our first annual Queen of Hearts, in November, was the higgest event of the fall season Effect sororities participated. We were ranked fourth out of 21 fraternities in both sports and manpower. We also served as the host chapter for the Tallahassee Regional Leadership Academy in February.

FORT HAVS STATE, Kansas Zeta—Fund raising generated about $1,200 for vanous house projects during the fall. Summer rush last summer brought us 12 pledges.

Our first string intramural football team won the all-school championship and went on to a tournament in Omaha, Nebraska Unfortunately the team won only one game in the double elimination tournament. We were ranked second in overall intramural competition.

Kevin Keller FREDONIA STATE, New York Iota—We teamed up with the Buffalo State chapter to push a wheelchair 60 miles from Fredonia to WIVB-IV in Buffalo to raise $1,500 for the Buffalo Children's Hospital Our community service program also included leaf raking and snow showling programs for the elderly. We worked with a group of women on campus to sponsor, an "Adopt, a Grandmother Day" with a local nursing home.

We helped the school start renovations on our College. Lodge in Brocton, New York saying the school more than $3,000. We also worked with the Red Cross to sponsor the blood drive. We are now the largest donor in Chautauqua County.

Patrick Farrell.

GENESEO, New York Theta—We started the 1983-1984 academic year by moving into our new 50-man chapter house. We started the spring term by receiving three manpower excellence awards at the Regional Leadership Academy. This year we initiated 26 brothers. We participated in a number of community service projects, including a very lucrative fund-rasing drive for the United Way.

GEORGE MASON, Virginia Mu—Our biggest-ever pledge class of 24 swelled the membership roll to more than 60 brothers. They participated in a restructured brother-hood development program. Our Sig Ep Raiders made it into intramural football playoffs this year.

Guests speakers for our Founders Day banquet were Virginia Supreme Court Justice Charlie Russell and GMU Rector Randolph Church

Our community projects included a newstudent picnic, park cleanups, playground construction for an area elementary school, a campus cleanup, the GMU law school auction, and more than 20 brothers took part in a blood drive. Six brothers participated again this year in the Barrier Awareness Program a program designed for the non-handicapped to learn the problems of the handicapped.

Allan Plumley GEORGE WASHINGTON, District of Columbia Alpha—We promoted two campus-wide blood drives this year and helped raise money for an inner-city kitchen for the homeless. The spring initiation of nine increased our total membership to 45

We're making plans for our 75th anniversary the first weekend of October, 1984. We are updating our mailing lists and need you to contact the chapter (2002 G. Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036).

Irving L Gaither GEORGIA SOUTHERN, Georgia Epsilon—Fall and winter rush brought us 18 new brothers. Our latest grade average had us ranked first on campus for the quarter and second over the past year

In February we celebrated our 15th anniversary on campus.

Bill King & Bob Garrett GEORGIA STATE, Georgia Beta—We pledged 10 men in the fall Spring rush brought us nine pledges—the largest number on campus. These new members helped increase our number of wins in intramural sports and to increase our chapter grade point average: up four points over one quarter. We are maintaining our top-half rating on campus, particularly in academics, manpower, and sports.

Tracy R Batzel & Greg Harman GEORGIA TECH, Georgia Alpha—Our chapter raised more than $5,800 in the annual Georgia Tech Leukemia Research Fund-Raising Drive with the University of Georgia. That amount put us in the top five fratemities on campus. The annual "Women of Georgia Tech" calendar fund raiser this year, to benefit the Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Foundation, was once again a success.

We were ranked fifth in academics for the spring quarter, earning the honor of Most Improved Fratemity in Scholastics. Fall rush resulted in 29 pledges ranking us second among 29 fratemities.

- Michael L. White ILLINOIS, Illinois Alpha—Our 34 pledges for the Class of '87 was the largest pledge class in chapter history

More than 80 alumni returned for Homecoming. The annual golf outing is scheduled for June.

Ron Sebonia
ILLINOIS STATE, Illinois Zeta—Manpower increased to 88

power increased to 88 after initiating 24 in December Our athletic teams won the all-Greek softball and football tournaments, as well as the all-univeras well as the all-university football tournament. We made it to the finals of the National Collegiate Flag Football Tournament in Omaha, Nehraska, and were recognized as one the top 16 teams in the nation.

Fite Nite remains the largest philanthropy on campus, with the sixth annual event generating more than $6,000 for chanty. We also held the fourth annual Sig Ep All-Midwest Baskethall Tournament in March.

- Don Voss
ILLINOIS TECH, Illinois Beta—We hosted the Chicago grand Chapter Conclave to August, 1983. We initiated 22 this semester, making our total membership 70 and maintaining our position as largest on campus. Our football and volleyball teams had winning records, and we placed second in basketball, pagent, Greek Week, and soccer.

- Joel Suter INDIANA, Indiana Beta—Homecoming

was a highlight—the Indiana Beta Educational Foundation raised more than $1,000 for scholarships in their first annual Silent Auction.

We initiated 23 men in the fall and have pledged 23 this semester, making total manpower 128. In sports, the chapter ranked second out of 33 teams.

WASHINGTON STATE, Washington Alpha—Fall highlights included a 20-man pledge class. Homecoming weekend with nearly 50 alumni attending, and the inception of a chapter scholarship fund. Spring events included the second annual "Run for Their Lives" Heart Fund Run, and the first annual Washington Alpha Alumni Weekend That weekend, in late April, featured vanous athletic events, including a golf fournament, and a "best story" contest between alumni.

WESTERN CAROLINA, North Carolina Pi-tChartered November 5, 1983; see story page 3) We initiated 95 percent of the first pledge class since our November chartering making total membership 77. We sponsored a basketball tournament to raise money for the Heart Fund and also sponsored a cleanup along a major road in Cullowhee. For the year in sports, we had a second place ranking among fraternities.

chapter house, but pro-L U S vaded an opportunity to remodel our library. Our spring semester pledge class of 22 was the largest on campus and took membership to 127. With the semester coming to an end, we were tied with Sigma Chi in our bid to capture our fifth intramural championship cup in six years. We had a Game Ball Run to Penn State, raising $1,500 for the Special Olympics. More than 60 year's Homecoming is October 20. - Doug Barger & Mark 1 Benson WICHITA STATE, Kansas Eta-We won the Best Actor trophy at the Hippodrome, and our 2.76 GPA earned us the highest ranking among fraternities. The regional basketball tournament in March was a success with chapters from several states participating. Past Grand President John Hartman was on hand

WISCONSIN, Wisconsin Beta-We have installed new storm windows and are working on more projects to improve the house Our fall GPA of 3.2 was best on campus. We raised more than $3,000 for cerebral palsy from our Winter Carnival We have taken 17 pledges this year and have instituted a yearround rush program.

- David Evan Otero & Scott Shore YORK, Pennsylvania Sigma-We have more than doubled in size this year and sponsored several fund raisers. The activities helped raise more than $1,000 to benefit local chanties. Our work also resulted in winning the Honor Scoop, York's award for the organization which contributes most to the community and campus.
